The Plover Awards and Season Launch!!!!

On Saturday 15th January, Playlovers will once again hold their annual Plover Awards and officially launch our 2011 season.

This is a great way to start the new year, celebrate all the great productions that Playlovers put on during 2010 and get an idea of what 2011 has in store.

So grab some friends, book a table (or part thereof) and join us in Hackett Hall with your nibbles for a night of entertainment on Saturday 15th Jan.

Call Lyn or Bronwyn on 0415777173 (9am -12pm) or email bookings@playlovers.org.au. No online bookings for this one because it's free!

And meanwhile check out our seasons for 2011 on the website (www.playlovers.org.au)

Looking forward to seeing you there! (Directors, make sure you get your casts to come along- they may be nominated for a Plover!)

Our Next Production

Written by Michael Frayn

Directed by Amanda Crewes

February 25, 26 March 3, 4, 5, 6, 10, 11, 12

All shows at 8pm, except Sunday, March 6 @ 7pm

'Noises Off' follows the onstage and offstage antics of a British second-rate theatre company as they stumble from dress rehearsal to disastrous final night of a third-rate comedy called "Nothing On."

Each of the three acts of Noises Off contains a performance of the first act of "Nothing On." Act One is set during the dress rehearsal, the night before opening with the cast still fumbling with entrances and exits, missed cues, etc.

Act Two portrays a Wednesday matinee performance one month later. In this act, the play is seen from backstage, providing a view that reveals the deteriorating personal relationships among the cast that have led to offstage shenanigans and onstage bedlam.

In Act Three, we see a performance near the end of the ten-week run, when personal friction has continued to increase and everyone is bored and anxious to be done with the play. The actors attempt to cover up a series of mishaps but only compound the problems and draw attention to the bungling performance.

Quite possibly the funniest play ever written" Bay Times

Auditions for Playlovers production of “Candide”

Candide is a fiercely funny comic operetta by Leonard Bernstein, based on the novella of the same name by Voltaire. Candide is most famous for its colourful and varied score, and is considered by many the wittiest – indeed, funniest – operetta (whose plot encompasses rape, murder, executions, religious persecution and bodily mutilation) ever penned.

All Singers must prepare something from either Broadway or Operetta. (no grand opera or pop-songs)

Please bring either a C.D. accompaniment, mp3 player or your own accompanist. There will be no supplied accompanist.

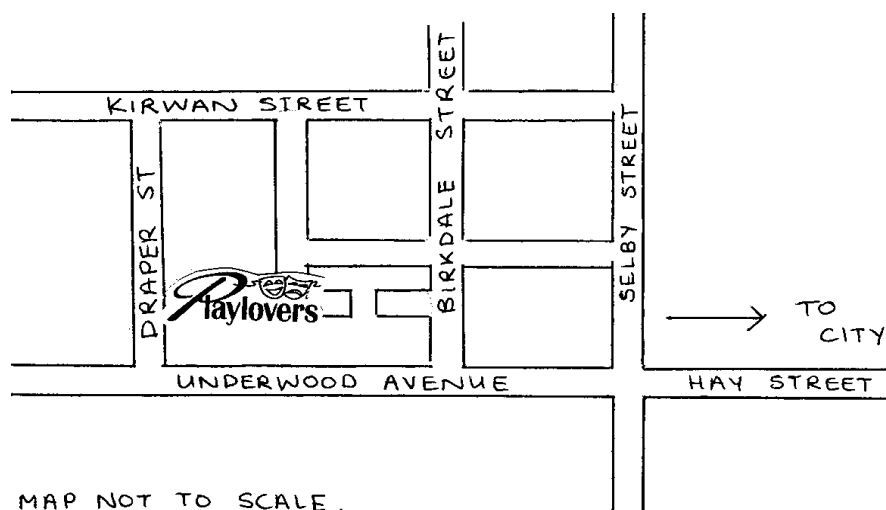

All principal roles are singing roles.

There are minimal dance requirements.

For more enquiries please check our website at www.playlovers.org.au or ring David Hardie on 041 166 3032
